3. Objective of HR Policy

Human resource (HR) policies serve as the foundation for managing a organization's workforce. They are designed to guide employees and managers in their interactions and decisions, ensuring consistency, fairness, and legal compliance across the organization. The objective of this HR policy is multifaceted, aiming to achieve several key goals:

1. Compliance: HR policy is designed in such a way to ensure that the organization complies with relevant labour laws, regulations, and industry standards. This includes laws prohibiting discrimination, harassment, wages, working hours, and health & safety.
2. Fairness and Equity: HR policy helps promote fairness and equity in the workplace by establishing clear guidelines for recruitment, promotion, and performance evaluation. They aim to ensure that all employees are treated fairly and that decisions are based on merit and job-related criteria.
3. Employee Relations: HR policy provides a framework for managing employee relations. They help promote a positive work environment by providing a clear process for resolving conflicts and addressing employee concerns.
4. Workplace Culture: HR policy plays a key role in shaping the organization's workplace culture. They communicate the organization's values, expectations, and behavioral standards, helping to create a positive and inclusive work environment.
5. Employee Development: HR policy supports employee development by outlining training and development opportunities, performance expectations, and career advancement paths. They help employees understand what is expected of them and how they can grow and advance within the organization.
6. Organizational Efficiency: HR policy contributes to organizational efficiency by providing clear guidelines and procedures for key HR processes, such as recruitment, onboarding, performance management, and leave management. They help streamline these processes and ensure consistency across the organization.

4. Scope of HR Policy

This policy applies to all employees of the University and its associate Schools.

5. General Conditions

1.1 The employees of the University or its associate Schools shall consist of the following categories, viz.

- (i) Faculty Members
- (ii) Non – Faculty Members

1.2 The Governing Board of University may, in accordance with AICTE/UGC/BCI from time to time, determine the category in which a particular post or cadre may be placed.

1.3 The Governing Board of University may in accordance with AICTE/UGC/BCI with the approval of the State Government, from time to time, fix the grade of pay of all categories of employees of the University or its associate Schools.

1.4 The qualifications scales of pay and allowances of different categories of employees of the University and its associate Schools shall be such as may be prescribed by the Governing Board in accordance with the rules prescribed by State Govt./AICTE/UGC/BCI.

1.5 An employee must dedicate their full time to the service of the University and its associate Schools. They are not allowed, without explicit permission from the relevant authority, to engage directly or indirectly in any trade, business, or other work that, in the opinion of the authority, might interfere with the proper discharge of their duties.

1.6 No member of the ‘teaching-staff’ shall undertake private tuition.

1.7 In addition to the teaching work, a faculty member shall be responsible to perform such extra- curricular duties, supervision and other work in connection with any examination held by the University and/or its associate Schools as may be allotted to him by the relevant authority. Non–performance of such duty shall be deemed to be negligence in the discharge of his duties.

1.8 Governing Board reserves the right of changing/amending/revising this book of Service Rules after due consideration. .

6. Recruitment Procedure

The recruitment process for both faculty and non-faculty members in university and its' associate Schools should be methodical and innovative. Recognizing the critical roles played by both groups in the educational ecosystem, it's imperative to ensure that the recruitment procedures are versatile and designed to attract the best talent. By adopting a versatile and innovative approach to recruitment, university and its associate Schools can attract, select, and retain top talent, thereby strengthening their academic programs, research endeavors, and overall organizational effectiveness.

Recruitment of Faculty Members:

The University and its associate Schools recruit and retain the faculty members who are competent, qualified, experienced and experts in their respective fields of study.

- A. Advertisement: The University and its associate Schools advertise the requirement of the faculty member in the state and national level newspapers and conducts interviews by inviting the outside subject experts and internal senior faculty members. The AICTE/UGC/BCI and University guidelines are being followed for recruitment of faculty & staff.
- B. Direct Application: Department also maintain a data bank for applications received directly from qualified people and also referred candidates from HR consultants/own sources etc. An internal committee consisting of the Deans, Principle of the Schools respective HOD, and senior faculty members are entitled to short list the applications and prepare the list of eligible candidates to be called for interview.
- C. On Campus Recruitment: The University and its associate Schools conduct the on-campus recruitments from the various Engineering and Science Departments of different nationwide Universities, IITs', NITs, IEST Shibpur, IISC Bangalore, IIMs' etc.

The recruitment procedure comprises of the following processes.

1. Shortlisting of resume.
2. Technical interview
4. Demo class.
5. HR interview.

Upon confirmation from Governing Board the Selection Committee is formed including:

- ❖ External Subject Experts
- ❖ Academician
- ❖ Vice Chancellor of the University
- ❖ Pro Vice Chancellor of the University
- ❖ Principal of Associate Schools
- ❖ HODs
- ❖ Representative of the Governing Board

Candidates are called for interview with minimum 10 days prior notice.

Upon recommendation of the Selection Committee, the selections are made and the appointment letters are issued. Wherever the Selection Committee feels required, candidates are asked to take trial classes and appear for final interview.

In case of on-campus recruitment, the list of final selects are sent to the placement department of the respective institute/university along with the offer letters.

D. Foreign Recruitment: The University and its associate Schools has initiated the process of recruiting visiting professor from Foreign Universities and Institutes in 2021. The main purpose is to collaborate with these organizations for enhancing the teaching and research of the University and its associate Schools.

Recruitment of Non Faculty Members:

Non-teaching staffs play a crucial role in the smooth functioning and overall environment of an educational institute. From managing administrative tasks to keeping campus facilities in top shape, they wear many hats. Whether it's ensuring safety, balancing budgets, engaging with the community, or guiding institutional decisions, their contributions are indispensable. In essence, they're the backbone of the college, vital for fostering a nurturing environment where students can thrive academically and beyond.

Given the pivotal role non-teaching staff play in the seamless functioning of a college, recruiting them should be approached with utmost care and precision. Their diverse responsibilities necessitate finding individuals who not only possess the required skills and qualifications but also exhibit a strong commitment to the institution's mission and values. Each position, whether in administration, facilities management, security, or finance, requires careful consideration to ensure the right fit. By prioritizing thorough evaluation and alignment with the college's objectives, the recruitment process can effectively identify candidates who will contribute significantly to the institution's success.

7. Policy on Performance Appraisal System for Faculty & Non Faculty Members

This policy sets out the framework for a clear and consistent assessment of the overall performance of teaching and non-teaching staff for supporting their development within the context of the institution plans. The broad purpose of appraisal system is to help staff members for their professional growth and development. The staff appraisal is evaluation of their performance on measurable parameters.

I. Policy for Appraisal of Faculty Members

The Faculty appraisal is to be carried out on four parameters:

Sr.	Parameter	Weightage
1	a) Student Passing Percentage b) Course Result of Semester Examinations of the subjects taught by the faculty	10 20
2	API Score Sheet	40
3	Student's Feedback about the classroom teaching	10
4	Institutional/Departmental Compliance	20

Parameter-1: Course Results (30 points)

Every semester, after the declaration of results, course wise result analysis is carried out. In the appraisal system, a weightage of 30 points is assigned to the parameter of course results of the subject's faculty have taught. There is two layer checking in this process:

1. Student Passing Percentage.
2. Average of Marks obtained by the students in the Course Result of Semester Examinations of the subjects taught by the faculty.

Parameter-2: API Score (40 Points)

The Academic Performance Indicator (API) is a transparent, objective and credible methodology of analysis of the merits and credentials of the applicants based on weightages given to the performance of the Faculty Members in different relevant dimensions and his/her performance on a scoring system pro-forma, based on the API,

Key Points measured in API:

- Direct Teaching Hours
- Research Paper Publication (International/National)
- Books/Chapter of the Books Authored and Published (International/National)
- Editors of Monographs / invited contributory Chapters in the Monographs (International/National)
- Awards/Fellowship
- Invited lectures/Resource Person/ paper presentation in International/National Seminars/ Conferences/full paper in Conference.

- Patent Registered
- Contribution to corporate life and management of the department and institution through participation in academic and administrative committees and responsibilities.
- Professional Development activities
- Development of Innovative pedagogy
- MOOCs (developed in 4 quadrant) per module / lecture
- Content writer/subject matter expert for each module of MOOCs
- Course Coordinator for MOOCs 4 Credit Course
- Development of E-Content in 4 quadrants for a Complete Course / E-Book
- Ph.D./M.Phil. Guidance (Degree Awarded) Ph.D. Guidance (Awarded) (Single Supervisor)
- Ongoing or Completed Research Project (More than Rs.10 lakhs)
- Consultancy etc.

Considering the above parameters the management committee has set the following bench mark for Teaching Staff Members:

Sr. No.	Designation	Desired API Score
1.	Professor	500
2.	Associate Professor	400
3.	Assistant Professor	300
4.	Technical Assistant	145

In terms of Appraisal weightage we consider the Final obtained API score on percentile basis considering the Designation of the Faculty Members.

Parameter-3: Student's Feedback (10 Points)

The parameter of student feedback will carry 10 points in appraisal system. Student's Feedback will be on following points:

(Rating: 5-Excellent, 4-Good, 3- Average, 2- Below Average, 1- Poor)

For Theory:

Sl. No.	Description
1	Ability to control class
2	Encourage students to raise relevant questions during the class
3	Capability to clear doubts on the subject matter
4	Completion of prescribed syllabus on time
5	Paying attention to your academic/nonacademic problems and try to solve them (within as well as beyond class hours)
6	Using various teaching aids (Laptop/desktop , white board/blackboard , models, PPT , projector/LCD, Google classroom, Google form etc)
7	Presentation and Explanation skills to make the lectures interesting

For Practical/Sessional:

Sl. No.	Description
1	Ability to control class
2	Encourage students to raise relevant questions during the class
3	Capability to clear doubts on the subject matter.
4	Completion of prescribed syllabus on time.
5	Paying attention to your academic/nonacademic problems and try to solve them (within as well as beyond class hours)
6	Ability to explain the objective of the experiment/assignment/program and help to solve the problem by necessary demonstration/explanation
7	Evaluation of report of the practical assignments and providing necessary correction on weekly assignments

Parameter-4: Institutional/Departmental Compliance (20 points)

University/Departmental Compliance comprises of activities that support coordination, management, and monitoring of the risks associated with federal, state and local laws and regulations. One of the major goals of educational institutions is to gain the loyalty of their students by complying with those norms. A population of loyal students is a source of competitive advantage to every Educational Institute. Our University and its associate Schools are very much focused to comply with laws, regulations framed by competent authorities time to time. Internal Policies are framed accordingly to ensure that all the activities of the University and its associate Schools should be executed in a compliant way. Taking note of the same in our University and its associate Schools, the Institutional / Departmental Compliance carry a good weightage in the Appraisal System. Vice Chancellor of the University /Principal of the University associate Schools & respective HODs' are the key personnel to evaluate the same and marking the Faculty Members.

Policy for Non-Faculty Members

The works of the Non-Faculty Members are assessed periodically through a structured mechanism:

- Work efficiency and commitment.
- Initiative towards learning newer trends in their respective areas.
- Leadership and team work.
- Discipline and regularity

The Non-Faculty Members are periodically trained and also encouraged to pursue their higher studies.

The feedback had helped take the following decisions.

- Conduct of language and soft skill programme for non-teaching and administrative staff.
- Leadership training programme for senior faculty to identify the succession lines.
- Deputation of staff to various orientation programs relating government policies and rules concerning HR management and Education.
- Sensitize faculty members and international students with regard to cultural issues and sensitivities.

The appraisal of Non-Faculty Members will be done on following parameters:

- Job knowledge and performing skills – Clear Understanding of the job responsibility – Deep Knowledge and skills necessary to perform the job efficiently – Innovativeness - Ability to deal with critical issues and solving them in timely manner - Willingness to learn new skills, methods, processes - multitasking abilities.
- Regularity and punctuality
- Quality of service
- Interpersonal skills, cooperation and collaboration
- Planning, organization and achievement of goals
- Problem analysis and decision making
- Documentation
- Leadership and teamwork

In accordance with the outlined criteria, staff members are requested to complete a self-appraisal form provided in the designated format. Following this, their evaluations are reviewed by their respective Heads of Departments (HODs) and other competent authorities, who assess the submissions against predetermined benchmarks and performance indicators. Subsequently, this final stage ensures a holistic evaluation that considers both self-assessment and supervisory input, thereby facilitating fair and objective appraisals aimed at recognizing and rewarding exemplary contributions.

Sr. No.	Observations, conclusion	Remedial action
1.	Excellent	Not required. However, staff will be encouraged to maintain the performance.
2.	Appreciable	Not required. Staff will be encouraged for further improvement if required
3.	Below expectations	Need improvement in weaker areas. Motivation and support will be given for improvement.
4.	Poor	Need overall improvement. Motivation and support will be given for improvement.

8. Leave Rules

The primary goal of leave policy of our University and its associate Schools are to offer staff members a fair chance to address their medical emergencies, personal matters, and domestic needs. We recognize that when staff are burdened with other concerns, their ability to focus on teaching and other official duties may suffer. Providing them with the opportunity to take leave while still earning their salaries is intended to alleviate these burdens and ensure they can perform effectively in their roles. This policy has been formulated with these considerations in mind.

11.7 If an employee fails to return and join the service of the University or its associate Schools, as applicable, at the expiration of the sanctioned leave, their service may be terminated by the highest authority. This termination may take effect from the date on which they should have rejoined their duty at the University or its associate Schools.

Procedure to Avail Leave

An employee shall apply for leave in online mode through IEMCRP software. Auto generated Leave Form will be received at official mail id. A printed copy of the leave-form must be signed by delegated members, responsible for handling work in the employee's absence. The same has to be submitted to the HOD for recommendation/sanction. Duly signed Leave Applications duly signed by the higher authority shall be submitted to the HR for further processing. Leave records will be updated subject to the highest authority approval.

In case a member of staff wants to cancel sanctioned leave in full or in part, he/she should obtain the recommendation of the HOD on his leave cancellation letter and submit the same to the HR. The application should be submitted within 24 hours of the availing dates and in any case before 17th of the current month.

As pay roll is processed from 01st to 30th/31st of the month and attendance from 16th of the preceding month till 15th of the current month, leave availed till 15th of the present month will be taken into account in order to calculate monthly salary. Leaves availed from 16th to 30th/31st of the current month will be calculated in the succeeding month's payroll.

Time and Attendance:

The policy expects employees to arrive at work on time and mark their attendance.

Employees are required to adhere to punctuality norms by arriving at the workplace and marking attendance via the Biometric System at the designated start and end times of the working day. While allowances for occasional tardiness are granted, with relaxation permitted twice a month, consistent late arrivals or early exit beyond this threshold will incur consequences. Upon the third instance of late entry or early exit, one casual leave will be deducted from the employee's leave balance. If no casual leave is available, one day's salary for the month will be debited. Additionally, employees exceeding the permissible number of grace period instances in a quarter will have their names reported to the Head of the Department and relevant authorities for further action. This policy ensures accountability and reinforces the importance of punctuality in maintaining operational efficiency.

9. Capacity Building Plan

A capacity building plan is a structured approach to enhancing the skills, competencies, and abilities of individuals or organizations to effectively perform their roles or functions. The goals and objectives of the capacity building plan should be specific, measurable, achievable, relevant, and time-bound (SMART). Our University and its associate Schools mainly focused on the following areas:

- Training & Development: The authority strongly believes that continuous updating of knowledge and technology is the hallmark of a faculty member. To meet this need, the institute encourages the HRDC Cell to organize FDP and Work Shop for the benefit of the faculty members and also lends support when the faculty wants to attend FDP and Work Shop in other reputed institutions.
- Enhancing Continuous Learning: The University is focused to continuous improvement initiatives and about the commitment to spread a culture of lifelong learning and professional development. Effective immediately, the University and its associate Schools are allocating full Coursera and LinkedIn Learning course licenses at no cost to all faculty, staff, and students. This initiative is designed to empower our community members to enhance their skills, explore new interests, and stay up to date with the latest trends in their fields.
- Driving Research & Innovation: As part of the ongoing commitment to prioritize research and innovation, several Centers of Excellence have established. These centers serve as hubs for intense research work, fostering collaboration among researchers, industry partners, and other institutions to drive meaningful advancements in various fields. University encourages all members of the community to explore opportunities to engage with our Centers of Excellence, whether through research collaborations, attending events, or participating in projects.
- Funding Innovation: The University and its associate Schools take action on Project Grant initiative aimed at supporting innovative research and projects that align with our commitment to excellence in education, research, and societal impact. These grants are designed to provide financial support to faculty, researchers, and students to pursue projects that have the potential to make significant contributions to their fields and society as a whole. We welcome proposals from all disciplines and encourage interdisciplinary collaboration to address complex challenges and explore new avenues of research.

10. Staff Welfare Measures

Staff welfare measures are policies, programs, and initiatives implemented by the University and its associated Schools to promote the well-being, health, and satisfaction of their employees. These measures are designed to improve the quality of work life and create a positive work environment. Here are some common staff welfare measures initiated by the authority:

- Educational Benefits: Employees who have been working full time with the group for minimum 10 years without gap, their children will be eligible for full Tuition Scholarships in our group of Schools and colleges from 2022-23 academic admission session onwards if the children have minimum 80% aggregate marks throughout and attendance must be 90% throughout and must be within top 20% of the students total marks for the scholarships to continue.
- Medical Reimbursement: Medical test expenses reimbursement is a policy or benefit offered by the authority for an overall employee healthcare or insurance program. Coverage for health checkups and diagnostics services up to Rs. 1,00,000/- per year for employees and their immediate family members can greatly benefit their health and well-being. Address of the diagnostic centre is as follows for your ready reference.

Dr. Sudarshan Chakrabarti Memorial Centre

P-198, Ultadanga Main Road, SCH –VII-M,
Kolkata – 700067

- Medical Insurance: Employees can avail the medical insurance facility offered by the University and its associate Schools, and for the same, the premium amount up to Rs. 12,000/- per year can be reimbursed by the authority. This is a valuable benefit that can help employees' secure essential healthcare coverage for themselves and their families.
- Doctor Facility: There is an on-campus doctor facility available during working hours, which is a great convenience for employees. It helps them access medical care more easily and quickly, which contributes to their overall health and well-being.
- Complementary Meal: The University and its associate Schools offer a generous benefit to all staff members by providing complimentary breakfast, lunch, and dinner. This amenity not only ensures that employees are well-nourished throughout the day but also fosters a sense of community and well-being within the campus environment. By removing the hassle of meal preparation and expenses, staff members can focus more fully on their professional responsibilities and enjoy the convenience of on-campus dining facilities. This perk serves as a tangible expression of the institution's commitment to supporting the health and welfare of its workforce, contributing to a positive work-life balance and overall job satisfaction.
- Gym Facility: Gym provides employees with a convenient way to stay fit and healthy, which can lead to improved productivity and overall well-being.

- Play–Ground Facility: The University and its associated Schools offer playground facility to the employees as a space for relaxation, recreation, and physical activity. Inter departmental tournaments; annual sports, annual picnic are conducted there on regular basis.
- Advance against Salary: Advances can be requested in cases of emergency, such as medical emergencies, unexpected expenses, or other urgent situations. Approval will be granted based on the nature of the emergency and the employee's past record. In any unforeseen circumstances, it is encouraged to use this option responsibly and only in genuine emergencies. Misuse of this policy may result in disciplinary action.

13. Disciplinary Policy & Procedure

Every employee should take a note of the importance of adhering to the policies and procedures, duly approved by the Governing Board of the University, particularly in regard to job performance, attendance, and conduct. It is crucial for maintaining a positive work environment and upholding the standards of professionalism expected from all employees.

All employees are expected to conduct themselves in a manner conducive to efficient and smooth working of the University and its associate Schools. An employee who does not conduct himself/ herself in a proper manner must be corrected through appropriate disciplinary action. An illustrative list of 'misconducts' warranting disciplinary action is given in sub-section below. The purpose of disciplinary action is to correct rather than to punish the employee. If the offense is of a grave nature or if efforts at correction do not meet with success, severe disciplinary action such as discharge or dismissal may have to be resorted to.

Disciplinary Authority:

Subject to the provisions made hereinafter, the highest authority of the University shall be the disciplinary authority in respect of all employees. The governing board shall be the final appellate authority with respect to any decision taken by the disciplinary authority. Decision of the Governing Board will be final.

Act of Misconduct:

Any of the following act of an employee shall be construed as an act of misconduct:

- Negligence in the discharge of duties.
- The applicability of willful insubordination or disobedience to an order of a higher authority, as per the provisions of the Act, Statutes, Regulations, and Rules of the University, extends to its associate Schools as well. Any breach of discipline, including acts of insubordination or disobedience, will be addressed with appropriate measures as outlined in university policies and procedures.
- Theft, fraud or dishonesty in connection with the property of the University and / or its associate Schools.
- Giving false information regarding one's name, father's name, age, qualifications, previous service, etc. at the time of employment or subsequently.
- Habitual late attendance or willful absence from duty without leave or sufficient cause and reasons.
- Taking or giving bribes or any illegal gratifications or indulging in corrupt practices.
- Sexual Harassments.
- Indecent behavior or any other act subversive of discipline.

- Assaulting or intimidating any employee of the University and its associated Schools as applicable.
- Sabotage or willful damage to or causing loss of goods or properties or harming the goodwill of the University and its associated Schools, as applicable.
- Spreading false information with a view to cause disruption of the normal work of the University and its associate Schools, as applicable.
- Unauthorized use of Land and Building of the University and its associate Schools, as applicable.
- Conviction in a court of Law for offence involving moral turpitude.
- Breach of rules and regulations, orders and circulars of the University and / or its associate Schools, as applicable of any of the higher authorities.
- Abetment or attempt to commit any of the acts of misconduct.
- Any other ground which may be considered by the Board of Management to be detrimental to the interest of the University and / or its associate Schoolss.

Penalties:

The following penalties or any of these may be imposed on any employee for misconduct, for good and sufficient reasons and after complying with procedure laid down hereinafter.

- Censure.
- Withholding of increment/s or promotion including the stoppage of increment at an efficiency bar, if any.
- Reduction of position to a lower stage in the time scale of pay for specified period with further direction as to whether or not the employee will earn increment of pay during the period of such reduction and whether on the expiry of such period the reduction will or will not have the effect of postponing the future increment of his pay.
- Recovery from pay of the whole or part of any pecuniary loss caused to the University and / or its associate Schools due to negligence or breach of order by the employee concerned.
- Suspension
- Compulsory retirement.
- Dismissal from service.

Suspension:

The disciplinary authority may place an employee under suspension.

1. Where the disciplinary proceedings against him / her is contemplated for and is pending
- or
2. Where a court case against him / her in respect of any criminal offence is under investigation, enquiry or trial.

An employee shall be deemed to have been placed under suspension by an order of the disciplinary authority:

- With effect from the date of detention, if he / she is detained in police custody on a criminal charge for a period exceeding 48 hours.
- With effect from the date of his/her conviction, if, upon such conviction, he / she is sentenced to a term of imprisonment exceeding 48 hours.
- Where the penalty of dismissal or removal from service imposed upon an employee, under suspension, is set aside on appeal or review under this Statute or under any order of the Court of Law and the case is remitted for further enquiry or action with any other direction his / her suspension shall be deemed to have continued and in force from the date of original order of the dismissal and shall remain in force until further orders of the disciplinary authority.
- During the period of suspension, the employee concerned shall be entitled to a subsistence allowance of an amount equal to one third of his / her basic pay only. In the event of his suspension being followed by punishment he / she shall not be entitled to any further emoluments other than what he / she had already been paid from the date of his suspension unless the Governing Board directs otherwise.

An order of suspension under this Statute shall not be deemed to be or construed as punishment for any purpose.

Procedure for Imposing Penalties:

No order of imposing of the penalties shall be made except after an enquiry held in the manner as following:

The Disciplinary Authority shall draw or cause to be drawn up –

- i) The substance of the imputation of misconduct / misbehavior into definite and distinct article or articles of charge;
- ii) A statement of imputation of misconduct or misbehavior in support of each article of charge which shall contain a statement of relevant facts including any admission or confession made by the employee;
- iii) The Disciplinary Authority may, for the purpose of enquiry, appoint an Enquiry Authority to advise the highest authority about the action to be taken.

14. Employee Exit Process

The objective of an employee exit policy is to ensure a smooth and organized transition when an employee leaves the organization. It aims to protect the company's interests by ensuring that departing employees comply with confidentiality agreements, return company property, and fulfill any pending obligations. Additionally, the policy helps in maintaining confidentiality regarding the reasons for an employee's departure, especially in cases of termination or disciplinary action. By ensuring compliance with relevant labor laws and regulations governing employee exits, such as notice periods, severance pay, and exit interviews, the policy helps the organization avoid legal issues.

Policy & Procedure:

1. Resignation: Any staff member desiring to resign must submit a written application stating the reason(s) for resigning. A staff member must provide an employment notice period in writing during service or pay in lieu of such notice, as per the terms of their appointment. If a faculty member wishes to exit employment during the probation or confirmation period, they must provide a one-month employment notice or equivalent payment of salary in lieu of notice period/days. Failure to comply with this condition may result in legal proceedings initiated by the competent authority as applicable under employment laws. Upon submission of resignation, the staff member must hand over to the Head of Department (HOD) all correspondence, documents, etc., belonging to the institution or related to its business, as they are the property of the institution.
2. Termination: Any employee if not abiding the rules and regulation, the managing authority has full right to terminate the employee. Termination of an employee is a serious and sensitive matter that should be handled with care and in accordance with the institution's policies and applicable laws. Before terminating an employee, it is important to conduct a thorough investigation to gather relevant facts and evidence related to the grounds for termination. The termination should be carried out in compliance with relevant employment laws and regulations, including providing the employee with any required notice period or severance pay.
3. Retirement: The date of retirement of all Faculty Members shall be the last date of the month on which he / she completes the age of 65 years. The date of retirement of all Non-faculty members shall be the last date of the month on which he / she completes the age of 60 years. In case of special need of the University and/or its associate Schools the highest authority may give extension to an employee which may not be more than a year at a time.
 - Extend not beyond the limit of 70 years of age, the service of a faculty members and 65 years for a non-faculty members.
 - Re-employ a faculty member as per guidelines laid down in the Government of West Bengal order in force from time to time.

Voluntary Retirement:

An employee on the completion of the age of 50 years or on the completion of twenty continuous years of loyal and faithful service of the Institute will have the option of voluntary retirement with benefits of provident fund, gratuity and such other amenities as would be admissible on the date of retirement.

Relieving/Clearance Certificate:

Upon departure, an exit meeting is conducted, and Human Resources Department confidentially records the details, which are then shared with the Institutional Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) to enhance the University's operations. A staff member will be required to submit an exit clearance certificate and no dues certificate to the Human Resources Department for full and final settlement of dues. If the staff member fails to return any University and/or its associate Schools' property, its cost shall be deducted from his/her wages, or recovered in any manner suitable, to the management.

The Accounts will process the Full & final settlement and coordinate for statutory claims related to employee.

Certificate of Service: Every employee shall be entitled to a service certificate at the time of leaving service, discharge or retirement from service.

1. Recruitment Policy and Procedure

The University recruits and retains the faculty members who are competent, qualified, experienced and experts in their respective field of study.

- A. Advertisement: The University advertises the requirement of the teachers in the state and national level newspapers and conducts interviews by inviting the outside subject experts and internal senior teachers. The AICTE and University guidelines are being followed for recruitment of faculty & staff.
- B. Direct Application: Department also maintain a data bank for applications received directly from qualified people and also referred candidates from HR consultants/own sources etc. An internal committee consisting of the Dean of Science, respective HOD, and senior teachers are entitled to short list the applications and prepare the list of eligible candidates to be called for interview.
- C. On Campus Recruitment: The University conducts the on-campus recruitments from the eligible/suitable candidates of various Engineering and Science Departments of different nationwide Universities, IITs', NITs' IEST Shibpur, IISC Bangalore etc.

The recruitment procedure comprises of the following processes.

1. Shortlisting by resume.
2. Online aptitude and psychometric test.
3. Technical interview
4. Demo class.
5. HR interview.

Upon confirmation from committee members the Selection Committee is formed including Subject Experts, Academicians, HODs, and a representative from the Governing Board. Candidates are called for interview with minimum 10 days prior notice.

Upon recommendation of the Selection Committee, the selections are made and the appointment letters are being issued. Wherever the Selection Committee feels required, candidates are asked to take trial classes and appear for final interview.

In case of on campus recruitment, the list of final selects are sent to the placement department of the respective institute/university along with the offer letters.

- D. Foreign Recruitment: The Institute has initiated the process of recruiting visiting professor from Foreign/National Universities and Institutes in 2021. The main purpose is to collaborate with these organizations for enhancing the teaching and research of the University.

Retired Employee Financial Assistance Policy

The primary goal of this policy is to acknowledge and reward the unwavering dedication, hard work, and loyalty demonstrated by employees during their tenure with the institution. Retirement marks a significant transition in life, often accompanied by concerns about financial stability and access to necessary resources.

- Financial Securities: By establishing a structured framework of post-retirement benefits, including pensions, gratuities the University/Institution seeks to ensure that retired employees can maintain a comfortable standard of living.
- Recognition of Service: This policy is a testament to the institution's gratitude for the invaluable contributions of its employees.
- Encouragement for Current Employees: The assurance of post-retirement benefits motivates current employees to dedicate themselves wholeheartedly to the institution, knowing their service will be rewarded even after retirement.

In essence, this policy is a blend of gratitude and responsibility, aiming to ensure that the transition from active service to retirement is seamless and dignified, allowing employees to enjoy this new phase of life with security and peace of mind.

Eligibility

1. The employee must have completed a minimum of 10 years of continuous service with the University/Institution before retirement.
2. Retirement age is as per University/ Institution norms (e.g., 65 years for faculty members and 60 for the staff members or as applicable).
3. Applies to full-time employees (faculty and staff).

Benefits

1. Gratuity and Provident Fund

- Gratuity as per applicable laws (e.g., ₹20 lakh maximum under the Gratuity Act).
- Provident fund contributions with employer match, disbursed at retirement.

2. Post-Retirement Support Fund

Monthly financial assistance provided to the retired employees as per the discretion of the competent authority, based on years of service and contribution towards University/ Institute .

Procedure

1. Complete necessary documentation for pension, gratuity, and provident fund processing.
2. Apply for specific post-retirement benefits as required.

Review and Amendment

The policy will be reviewed every three years to ensure alignment with regulatory changes and institutional capabilities.
